

Battle of the Brandywine September 11, 1777 (2005 program)

- Kennett Township Historical Commission May 26, 2005 program materials on Battle of the Brandywine.
- Newspaper article, undated, "How the American Revolution was heavily felt in Kennett Square" by Delores Rowe.
- Article, "The Marquis de Lafayette" in the Winter 2003 issue of Newsletter of Brandywine Park Associates.
- Map: "Ground chosen and entrenched by Washington to fight Howe's Army" (mostly in N. Delaware).
- 3 pages of documentation and letters re: troop movements in Delaware prior to Battle.
- March 11, 1984 "Penn's Quakers of the Brandywine: then and now" program by Brandywine Battlefield's Celebration of the 303rd Charter Day, including driving tour and map.
- Newspaper article on publication of novel, The Enemy's Country, 1972 by Rev. Robert H. Gamble.
- Newspaper article, "County history made good fiction" by Paul Rodebaugh, Nov. 26, 1992 re: various works of fiction using area setting during revolution.
- Letter from M.W. Ostrom, dated 9/27/1996 to D.C. Morse detailing Malvern Historical Commission's program on the Paoli Massacre, September 21, 1777.
- Letter dated 4/27/2009 from Chadds Ford Historical Society to Senator xxxxx with resolution to keep Brandywine Battlefield Park open.
- Map of Brandywine Battlefield District, pub. 1922.
- Revolutionary War timeline as it relates to Chester County and Revolutionary War Historic resources Inventory with notes.
- Chester County historic preservation network flyers: 2 programs: 1- 9/24/1997 (CCHS exhibit) and 2- 12/4/1992 (Revolutionary War Workshop).
- Brandywine Battlefield Task Force info packet, November 16, 1996 with the mission to preserve and educate re: 10 square mile Brandywine Battlefield National Historic Landmark.
- Packet: "Brandywine Battlefield: Brandywine Conservancy 1994 mobile workshop including maps.
- Program of events, Sept 10-11, 1977 celebrating 200th Anniversary of Battle of the Brandywine.
- Town Crier article, c. 1987, "Marching through Delaware" by Delaware State Senator, Roger Martin.
- Note on Div. Flag carried by 7th Pennsylvania Regiment at Battle and portion of Rev. Joab Trout's sermon to American troops on eve of the Battle; Sept. 10, 1777.
- Pop Quiz (10 questions) on Battle of the Brandywine published by Brandywine Battlefield Park Association.

- Newspaper Articles/Clippings: 1-Sept 17-23, 2009 Kennett Paper, “County gets federal grant to develop atlas of Brandywine Battlefield Landmarks”.; 2- Aug 20-26, 2009 Kennett Paper, “Brandywine Battlefield (Park) closes, then opens again” (to operate by Brandywine Battlefield Park Associates); 3- May 14-20, 2009 Kennett Paper, “Brandywine Battlefield funding in jeopardy”; 4- Nov. 2, 2002 Kennett Paper, Caryl Huffaker article, “The Battle of the Brandywine in Art”; 5- June 1-7, 1995 Kennett Paper, Caryl Huffaker article relating anecdote of skirmish in front of the Old Kennett Meeting, Sept. 11, 1777.
- Newspaper article, “Lafayette’s Gold” offers history, mystery, “Chester County Press (electronic) 9/18/2010. Review of historical novel by Gene Pisasale: Lafayette’s Gold.
- Article “Brandywine Battlefield in danger of closing” by Anne Pickering from The Kennett Paper Sept. 30-Oct.6, 2010 p. B3.
- Fall 2009 :”When the Redcoats Came to Kennett Square” from Kennett Square Today Magazine
- 10-11-2010 Newspaper article “Lafayette Rode to Liberty’s Rescue” about Lafayette and his participation in the American Revolution
- 10-27-2010 Highlight sheet “Lafayette’s Gold – Lecture Summary” about the Book “Lafayette’s Gold’ and author, Gene Pisasale, and his lecture about Lafayette’s role in the Battle of the Brandywine.
- 5-2011 Historic Chadds Ford and the Brandywine Valley (Map with sites).