

Chester County History

- 1960 Chris Sanderson Tour of “Historic Points in Chester County”
- 1982 Authors’ exhibit by Chester County Public Libraries: “The Literary History of Chester County”
- Article, Daily Local News, 12/14/2007: “Documentary shows history of Tredyffrine”
- Pennsylvania Historical Chronicle (newspaper) featuring Chester County, with a big article on early Pennsylvania settlers, including Indians; the Paoli massacre.
- National Geographic Society Quarterly, Vol. 70 (1982), pages 282-294
- Newspaper Article, “New London, a town worth more than a traveler’s hurried glance,” KNA, 12/27/1973
- “Bicentennial of the Constitution, 1787-1987” with significant historical dates.
- Suggested Bicentennial Programs and Events, 1787-1987
- Article “Historic Chester County” by Christian C. Sanderson, Lenape, Pennsylvania, 1930 and has a forward and seven (7) sections on The Indians, The Period of Settlement, the Revolution, Anti-slavery Days, The Civil War, Some Literary Gems, and Production... Industry... Personages