NEW BUSINESS

Area transportation Report

Bob Listerman gave an area transportation report as follows: I-95 needs to be rebuilt through Philadelphia.$9 Billion and there is no money for other projects, and new projects* are not being accepted, until funding for I-95 is solved. One determinant is the tolling of I-80. As of today's meeting it has not been approved. * Transportation Infrastructure Planning is not taking on any new projects. Improvements for Route 1 is on TIP's list but now stands to start in 2016. When the project does move to a final design & known start date, PennDOT will come knocking on the doors of all municipalities to plan mitigating impact strategies. It may include infrastructure improvements inside the township to handle detoured traffic. Scoot: We are competing with Delaware, Bucks, & Montgomery Counties for services. Some misc. projects underway: 202, Coatsville R-5, new signalization in Exton. RR: Regional Railroad HQ in Kennett Square, 110 miles of track of which 60 miles are in Chester County.

Zoning Ordinance Proposal for Retirement Community 2

John Haedrich presented the proposed Ordinance for "Retirement Community 2" Independent Senior Living and stated that the proposal is similar to the Congregate Care Overlay District, which, exists, in the current Zoning Ordinance. He stated that the applicant may pursue an Ordinance change next year and the subcommittee met with Chester County Planning Commission to discuss Zoning language change.
