Bucktoe Creek Preserve Meadow

There are many reasons to become a TLC volunteer!

- Learn how to care for trees and native plants
- Spend time outdoors in beautiful natural areas
- Conduct vital stewardship projects
- Contribute to an important cause in the community

Learning to skip stones in the creek

Creating a trail at TLC's Marshall Bridge Preserve

TLC volunteers conduct a wide range of projects and activities, such as tree plantings, trail building and cleanup, invasive species removal, wildlife monitoring, bird box installation and maintenance, tree care, and assisting with TLC's educational programs and events.

TLC is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to protecting our irreplaceable natural and historic resources.
